

THE NEA ATTORNEY REFERRAL PROGRAM

PERSONAL AND FAMILY LEGAL SERVICES

NEA's Attorney Referral Program provides members with legal advice on personal matters in five core areas.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE

NEA's Attorney Referral Program is open to any member including active, life, support, student, or retired member, and the member's spouse and dependent children.

WHAT THE PROGRAM PROVIDES

Your national and state Associations have identified attorneys throughout the state who have agreed to handle certain personal matters at a substantially reduced rate.

During any membership year, eligible members are entitled to two free 30-minute consultations on "core" areas with any of the attorneys listed. The two free consultations may not be in the same "core" area.

In addition to these free consultations, members may have legal work performed in the five "core" areas at a 30% reduction of that attorney's normal hourly fee.

Wills may be prepared for a flat fee. In that case, members receive a 30% reduction of the attorney's normal flat fee.

Not Covered: Employment, criminal and bankruptcy matters are not covered. See listings for the types of services offered by each attorney. See your AEA Organizational Consultant for assistance with school employment problems.
